CALL FOR EXHIBITORS

The Alliance for New Jersey Environmental Education (ANJEE) invites you to join us as an exhibitor for the 22nd Annual New Jersey Environmental Education Conference. ANJEE is comprised of over 400 environmental educators, naturalists, classroom teachers, youth leaders, interpreters, administrators, business representatives and government agency employees who are involved with environmental education in New Jersey. This conference is the only major gathering of such an audience; this forum provides non-profit and commercial exhibitors a premier opportunity to network with colleagues, showcase programs, or sell publications, programs, and products that support the environment and/or environmental education.

Note our new prestigious conference location—an additional reason to exhibit with us this year!
