

The Alliance for New Jersey Environmental Education

22nd Annual New Jersey Environmental Education Conference

February 1-3, 2007

Princeton University, Princeton, NJ

CALL FOR SPONSORS

The Alliance for New Jersey Environmental Education (ANJEE) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that strives to improve and increase the delivery of environmental education throughout New Jersey. The Alliance's largest event each year, the Annual New Jersey Environmental Education Conference, draws over 350 environmental educators from across New Jersey and the surrounding states. You can help assure that the conference will offer outstanding professional development opportunities while remaining affordable by providing funding to cover conference expenses such as printing, mailings, food, and special presenters. Please consider becoming an ANJEE conference sponsor and help improve environmental literacy for all citizens.
