

NORTH AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

NAAEE

Since its inception in 1971, NAAEE has been dedicated to promoting environmental education and supporting the work of environmental educators. In recent years, through a collaborative process, NAAEE has spearheaded the development of national standards for both programs and materials. NAAEE now has a strong Affiliates program dedicated to the development of state capacity in environmental education. As the official affiliate from New Jersey, ANJEE contributes to the evolution of environmental education at the national and international levels, while gaining from the knowledge and experience of our colleges around the world.
